

Character Counts Activity Board-
Try to do at least one per day!

Make a family kindness jar. Fill it up with any small items such as beans, buttons or pennies, when someone does something kind. When it is full, celebrate!!

Draw a picture of what respect looks like. You can include things like having manners, following rules, or using kind words.

Make up a song about caring. Sing it to someone.

Read a book with someone and talk about ways the characters show positive character traits.

Take a walk with someone and talk about all the things you are thankful for.

Tell someone in your family 5 things you like about them.

Do an extra chore around the house that you do not usually do.

Build a chain of trust. Cut 1"x9" pieces of paper. Write an action that demonstrates trustworthiness. Connect the chain to make a strong chain of trust.

Draw an outline of your body. Fill it with all the positive character traits you have.

With the help of an adult, make a meal or special treat for someone else.

Make a book about ways you can be a good citizen in your community.

Make a list of responsibilities you have today. Check them off as you go.
